SHIPS TO PLY THE MISSISSIPPI.

Sea Going Vessels from Saint Louis to the Gulf.

From Hickman Direct to Liverpool.

Since the opening of the Chicago Drainage Canal there has been a great deal said about the possibility and probability of a ship canal from the Gulf of Mexico to Lake Michigan via the Mississippi and Illinois rivers and the drainage canal. Mr. James A. Sullivan, who stands at the head of his profession as an engineer, says he has solved the problem of running sea going vessels through the Mississippi Valley. He says, however, that which is a fact, that there is always and at all times in the Mississippi a sufficient amount of water for the largest ship, but it covers too much river bed, and therefore its shallow places. He says the floods destroy the channels, and that if the floods are stopped the river would soon maintain a channel all sufficient. Therefore he says stop the floods. The drainage canal, excepting 6 miles which is uncompleted, is large enough for the largest ships, from Chicago to Lockport, and the Government must take up the work from Lockport to the Gulf. The cost of a 20 foot waterway to the Mississippi is estimated at fifty million dollars. In flood periods the water is to be held in check by great locks and dams at certain points, of sufficient power and mass outside that the water at Cairo shall never exceed about 40 feet. His plan shows to turn the flood into the St. Francis basin instead of permitting it to go off down the Mississippi to do its fearful work of destruction. The St. Francis basin reaches from Cairo to Helena, about 200 miles long, and from 12 to 15 miles wide, and through this Mr. Sullivan would cut a runway through which flood water could be turned at will, and then in low water could be permitted to take its course to the Gulf. Of course there is much more of detail, but this is a brief outline of it. The estimated cost is about one hundred and fifty million dollars. And, moreover, the plan is approved by leading engineers, and will be pushed by active, busy men, who can command millions of dollars.

PROFIT BY THE LESSON.

[From St. Louis Republic.] It is, as a matter of course, a national duty for the American people to pay the war tax necessary to defray the cost of the campaign in the Philippines and of the recent operations in China—operations which have required during the past two months expenditures aggregating $45,000,000, or an average of about $750,000 per day. This enormous disbursement is absorbed by war. Even though the administration at Washington contends that a state of war does not now exist in the Philippines the American people must draw different conclusions from the facts which they are compelled to face. It is a pretty serious war which demands the expenditures now inevitable for the maintenance of our army in the Philippines, which makes necessary the hurried return to Manila of the troops sent to China, which continues to swell the casualty lists reported to the War Department by Gen. McArthur. We should not relish any stronger proofs that we are engaged in a war at the present moment. But, while paying the war taxes it is proper that the American people should profit by the lesson now being taught. This lesson constitutes a potent illustration of the evils that must attend an American surrender to the policy of Empire and of land-grabbing in the Eastern Hemisphere which is wisely forbidden by the sound American doctrine now so openly disregarded. At the very beginning of the war the order of things brought about by the greed of Europe the war that the American people have received a total of nearly $1,000,000 per day. A war that must inevitably develop into a prolonged war for the extermination of 1,000,000 people is now on in the Philippines. The progress of war with some first class power grows greater the more we meddle with affairs in the Old World. The price in money and blood of the American policy of imperialism promises to be appalling. It is not probable that the American people will consent to fasten this burden upon themselves at the dictation of the American trusts who are using the Government as a trust possession.

AUSTRIA is the one country in the world which uses a woman in prison. Instead of giving a female prisoner so many months in jail she is sent no matter how terrible her record, to one or other of the convents devoted for the purpose and kept there during the time for which she is sentenced. The convent is not a mere prison in the usual sense, for its court yards stand open all day long, the only bar to women being a high white wall, just as in other countries.

Gen. Palmer Dead

Gen. John M. Palmer, ex U. S. Senator from Illinois, and late gold democrat candidate for President, died in Springfield, Ill., Tuesday. He was 63. He was sick only about 24 hours.

The new census in population under the new census calls for redistributing and additional members in Congress from most States.

Hickman and Tiptonville Levee.

MEMPHIS, TENN., Sept. 25.—Bids for the construction of the Lake county levee have been opened by J. C. Harris, Chairman of the Lake County Levee Commission, at Tiptonville, Tenn. The specifications call for five miles of new levee work, the cost of which will be $83,964.75. This is covered by a bond issue of $100,000. The contract for the work was awarded to T. H. Carey at 13.59 cents per cubic yard.

Truistful Funeral Service.

A preacher at Ft. Scott, Kan., delivered a brief but truthful funeral sermon the other day. Here it is: "A word to you all. Four precious jewels are in the air. People kiss their hands who have lost an open casket in hysterical sobs, but fail to throw their arms around their loved ones who are fighting the stern battle of life. A word of cheer to the struggling soul in life is worth more than all the roses of christendom piling high over casket covers."

LACLEDE HOTEL CASE.

Judge Sets the Jury's Verdict Aside.

The Fulton Circuit Court was occupied pretty much all last week in the trial of the case of the Dickson Brick Co. vs. S. J. Curlin, known as the Laclede Hotel case. The Dickson Brick Co. sued for $25,000, Curlin claiming contract price at $11,200, but admitting some extra work agreed to amounting to several hundred dollars, and claiming damages for defective work. The jury returned a verdict allowing the Dickson Brick Co. $18,625.50 for extra work, over the contract $11,200, and also allowing Mr. Curlin damages to the amount of $862.25, which, after crediting the judgment with $7,400 previously paid, left him in debt to the Dickson Brick Co. about $8,000. Judge Robbins set the verdict of the jury aside, not being able to approve same, and rendered a judgment giving the Dickson Brick Co. $4,461, with interest from date of judgment, and ordering property to be sold to satisfy said judgment. And from this both plaintiff and defendant prayed an appeal, which was granted.

POSTAL FRAUDS.

The Cuban postal frauds have been investigated and the report printed. Judging from the extract printed Wednesday it is an interesting document with dashes of grim humor. That Messrs. Neely and Rathbone succeeded in having a good time at the government's expense is evident. Mr. Neely's misappropriation of funds and Mr. Rathbone's carelessness are clearly established. The story of the director general's "official" carriage, "official" residence and "official" traveling expenses would be amusing were it not so serious. The sudden wealth displayed by M. Neely the month after he began drawing his salary of $18,750 a year and the luxury of Mr. Rathbone, for which the government paid freight items as "the transportation of Pannin (to dog) to Havana, $22.50," show the utter nonchalant of these Cuban postal officials.

Howard Found Guilty.

Jim Howard one of the men charged with the assassination of Gov. Goebel, whose trial has been in progress at Frankfort the past two weeks, on Wednesday was found guilty by the verdict of the jury, and his punishment fixed at death. The proof against him was that he was in the building at the time Goebel was killed, that immediately afterwards he was seen running from the grounds, and that he afterwards acknowledged to different persons that he did kill Goebel. This much was proven against him, but it is also true that he proved by witnesses that he was elsewhere at the time of the shooting; and it was true that both sides introduced witnesses to prove the incredibility of the other side's witnesses. The defendant prayed for a new trial, and failing in that will appeal the case.

Vote Bryan Expects to Elect.

The following is taken from what is represented as the National Democratic Campaign Committee's calculations: It is virtually conceded by the Republican shortstop that Keppey, West Virginia and Maryland will go to Bryan, and that the Nebraska will capture the electoral vote in nearly all States carried by him in 1896.

The following tabulation indicates the importance of Illinois, Kentucky, Maryland and West Virginia in the electoral computation: Electoral vote cast for Bryan in 1896: Kentucky.....19 Maryland.....5 West Virginia.....5 Illinois.....24 Total.....34 Necessary to elect.....234 Bryan received one of the thirteen electoral votes in Kentucky four years ago, and therefore only twelve votes are needed to win the presidency. It is believed by the conservative leaders of the party, however, that Mr. Bryan may lose a few electoral votes in the West and that the electoral vote of Indiana, in addition to Illinois, Ohio or New York, will be necessary to secure the election.

Cuba Push for Empire Freedom.

Francisco Ferrer, leader of the returned from Cuba on a leave of absence is at the Shorham. Speaking of the situation in Cuba he said: "The Cubans have held their local elections preliminary to the establishment of a government for the island, and will meet in convention November 5 to provide for the machinery of government. By the terms of the fourth clause of the resolution of intervention to secure the freedom of Cuba, Congress disclaimed any intention to exercise sovereignty over Cuba, except for the pacification of the island, and promised to leave the government and control of the island to its people, when that should be accomplished. "Under this declaration steps have been taken looking to the establishment of a stable government by the people. In the exercise of franchise those who served in the army of the revolution against Spain are exempted from the restriction placed upon the voter that he must be possessed of 500 worth of property or be able to read and write. All who served in the revolutionary army are free to vote without restriction. "The revolutionary party which has been largely successful in the recent elections, desires immediate independence, without any sort of protectorate, control or supervision by the United States, and the immediate withdrawal of the American troops. The more conservative people, merchants and business men, many of whom are Spanish, and the Cubans of some wealth and substantial business interests, together with the foreigners, of whom there are many, desire continuance of the supervision of the United States."

98 Spiders in His Ear.

Kennett, Mo., Democrat: This sounds like a fish story, but it is nevertheless true: One day last week the eight year old son of James Hawkins, living one mile north of Seneth, complained of having a severe headache. On examination there was discovered a large spider in his ear. Some simple remedy was applied to remove the spider and twenty or more took out at one time, after which they got Dr. Lawrence of Seneth, who took out in all 98 large, grown spiders of the round black variety, and on Monday of this week his father took him to Hannesville to Dr. Young, who, by the aid of the X-rays took out of these three balls of eggs and a small full of webs.

20,000 TO BREAKFAST.

Paris, Sept. 22.—Under a tent covering 30,000 square meters, 20,000 breakfasted at the presence of President in the Tuilleries Gardens to-day. The banquet was given by President Loubet to the Mayors of the municipalities of France in honor of the Exposition.

It can safely be said that such a prodigious repast was never before undertaken. The arrangements had been going forward for some weeks and resulted in such excellence of detail that the event was carried to perfection without a hitch.

HELD UP AT UNION CITY.

Dr. Hall Beaten and Robbed.

Sunday night, Dr. W. H. Hall, a well known citizen of Union City, when on his way home, was knocked down, with a heavy blow on the head, and robbed of $9 in silver. Dr. Hall, who is a cripple, was left for dead, but dragged himself to his home. The country was secured for his assistance. His hurts are painful and serious, but not considered fatal.

21,570 Serranos Were in Attendance.

Paris, Sept. 22.—Under a tent covering 30,000 square meters, 20,000 breakfasted at the presence of President in the Tuilleries Gardens to-day. The banquet was given by President Loubet to the Mayors of the municipalities of France in honor of the Exposition.

The Electrical Review says there are persistent rumors that all the telegraph and telephone companies in the United States are preparing to form a great gigantic combination.

ALTHOUGH the war is said to be over in the Philippines, a battle was fought last week in which the American loss in killed, wounded and missing was 43. Twelve soldiers were killed outright.

11111

Hon. Ben Keys was nominated at Paducah for Congress by the combined opposition to Congressman Wheeler. Keys is a Populist and the nominee of that party. The Paducah convention chose the cabin as Keys' design.

11111

One hundred thousand Democratic club members from every State in the Union will gather at Indianapolis, Oct. 3rd, compare notes and return home to light the fire of Jeffersonian principles upon every hill top in the land.

11111

A CONSERVATIVE estimate places the devastated district of Galveston at 1,300 acres, which was swept almost clean of habitations, and the financial loss to the city and surrounding towns is estimated at from twenty to thirty million dollars.

11111

HAVE laid a mighty strain upon his Chicago audience last week when he declared to it that there are no such things as trusts in America. He may not call them by that name, but that is the name by which the American people know them.

11111

Tax State Board of Election Commissioners will shortly meet and appoint the county boards. Under the present law the boards have to be appointed during September, and it is by no means certain that a change can be made in the law this month, if at all.

11111

We certainly did the handsome thing by Spain in the late war. We paid $20,000,000 in cash, then untrapped the burden from her shoulders that she had been staggering under, strapped it on our shoulders and we are now doing a little stagstap on our own account.

11111

The Republican Governor and Secretary of State left Utah and went over to Idaho to hear Roosevelt speak. In their absence Asah Nelsener, Democratic President of the Utah Senate, took charge as Governor and appointed O. W. Powers United States Senator.

11111

The Chinese colony of New York City is collecting supplies to be sent to Galveston. The principal item to be sent will be tea. It is said that this is the first time that any set of Chinamen in this country have joined together for the relief of sufferers from a great catastrophe.

11111

At Ettingham, Ill., last week, two hundred ladies, each carrying a campaign umbrella, marched at the head of the escort which conducted Samuel Alschuler from the depot to his hotel. The ladies of Illinois are conducting a vigorous campaign for the election of Bryan and Stevenson and Samuel Alschuler, the Democratic nominee for Governor.

11111

INFORMATION comes from Chicago that Towne will speak in Kentucky one day making two speeches. Weaver of Iowa will speak in Kentucky the week beginning October 8, making two speeches a day. Bailey, of Texas, will make five speeches, and Gov. McMillin, of Tennessee, several. Bourke Cochran will speak in Louisville, one night. It is believed that David B. Hill and Tom Johnson will speak in Louisville.

11111

Mr. CARL SCHURZ has certainly put Secretary of the Treasury Gage in a hole. About six weeks ago Mr. Gage issued a statement in which he gave assurance of the permanency of the gold standard. On the 25th of August he gave out an interview in which he called attention to dangerous loopholes in the present currency law. Mr. Schurz prints the two statements, side by side, and appeals from Gage, the Republican partizan, to Gage, the financier. The situation is surely a most embarrassing one for the Secretary.

11111

The census discloses the fact that in the South New Orleans is the only city which has a population of 100,000. New York has four, New Jersey three, Massachusetts three and Pennsylvania and Ohio four each. The South has never run to urban population, and two of its States—North Carolina and Mississippi have no towns exceeding 20,000 population. However, with the growth of the manufacturing interest will come increase of population and New Orleans will not be long without company beyond the 100,000 mark.

—Some years ago, says an exchange, 2,000 acres of land were purchased in Florida for the purpose of raising wild animals, so that circus men and zoological zoos would not have to go to India or Africa for their wild beasts. The people of Florida, however, objected to the thought of having ferocious lions, tigers, elephants, etc., running loose in their community, so the idea was abandoned. Our war with Spain delayed matters some, but now these islands off the coast of Florida have been secured, and already expeditions are being fitted out to search for animals and to bring them brought to the new farm. The islands are far enough apart that they cannot swim from one to another, and there is no fear of their getting away. The new houses are covered with woods, and to some parts a thick undergrowth, so it will seem to the animals quite like their native haunts. One way of dividing the animals is such a way that the quarrelsome ones will not be on the same island so that they will probably be more peaceful than in their own homes.

The Real Issue.

The political campaign which will be fought out toward the end of the last year of the century will be a notable one in the history of the United States. Heretofore the issues have been largely domestic, but this year the main issue affects our foreign policy. The question before the American people, let the newspapers and campaigneers say what they may.

This Year's Ballot.

When the voter goes to the polls next November to cast his ballot for his choice of candidates, he will be bothered with the security of material from which to choose, as there will be plenty of names on the ticket, which is much larger than ever voted since the immigration of the Australian ballot system. The ticket this year will contain the names of thirteen presidential candidates and their electors, and although each separate column will not be filled out entirely, it will occupy as much space, as blanks will have to be left where no name appears. The official ballot, when spread out before the sovereign citizen who is asked to make thereon his choice of candidates, will be almost as large as a blanket.

It will never be more definitely how many lives were lost in the terrible disaster, along with President McKinley, as arbitrator in the miners' strike. He was asked if he would be willing to try to bring about a settlement of the miners' differences if Mr. McKinley showed a disposition to act as an arbitrator.

"I do not care to anticipate what Mr. McKinley did," was the reply.

The Anthracite Strike.

The reported plan of the Philadelphia and Reading Company to break the strike by giving their employees a 10 per cent. advance in wages has much about it to be commended. The miners would get a positive advantage without the fearful cost of a protracted strike, while the operators would find it much cheaper to do this than to risk several months' tie-up. There is great danger in that case that the substitution of bituminous coal for anthracite would make such progress as permanently to impair the market for their product. Bituminous costs as much less than anthracite as to make it possible to add the extra cost of the wages would be added to the selling price. The public would be willing to pay the advance provided they could know it would go to the benefit of the miners.

NEITHER CANDIDATE HAS ACCEPTED YET.

Clinton, N. H., Sept. 24.—President McKinley has knowledge of the suggestion that he act as arbitrator of the anthracite coal strike in conjunction with trying to bring about a settlement of the miners' differences. He has not come to believe it his duty to act as an arbitrator in the strike question.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 24.—W. J. Bryan does not readily accept the idea of acting, along with President McKinley, as arbitrator in the miners' strike. He was asked if he would be willing to try to bring about a settlement of the miners' differences if Mr. McKinley showed a disposition to act as an arbitrator.

"I do not care to anticipate what Mr. McKinley did," was the reply.

—Mayfield Messenger: Ben Hughes and Miss Verna Walker, of Fulton, eloped and married yesterday, and drove through to Mayfield, and are the guests of officer Finis Webb. The groom is a brother of Mrs. Webb, and the bride is the daughter of officer Jesse Walker, at Fulton, and is 17 years old.

—Mr. and Mrs. Dick Tyler entertain quite a number of the young people last Friday evening.—Misses Annie Ellison and Estelle Reno received the guests in a very becoming manner.

—The hours were spent in games, music, little bit in a la, each pronouncing the evening a pleasant one and all apparel and thank the host and hostess. Delicious food was served.

—We have exclusive sale of Buck's Famous Cooking Stoves and Ranges. Also the Famous Wilson Heater, Hot Water Stoves, and are in a position to offer you some bargains. See us.

ATTEMPT TO ROB. Young Lady Fires at Burglar.

On Saturday night last an attempt was made by a burglar to enter the residence of our venerable townsman, Mr. K. Case, at West Hickman. The noise at the window made by the burglar, was heard by Miss Fannie Hamilton, a young lady who lives in the family, who, instead of screaming and going into hysterics as most young women would have done, possessed herself of a pistol in the room, and awaited developments. The burglar cut a slat and then raised the window. After raising the window he struck a match the flash from which exposed his person, and Miss Hamilton fired her pistol at his person. The burglar cried "oh, oh," indicating that her shot took effect. No more was seen of him. The raised window, and blind, and cot, proved clearly that some one had been trying to make an entrance.

The same night one Jere Freeman, a colored man, claiming to have accidentally shot himself, sent Dr. Farris to extract the ball. He was shot in the shoulder, and report says that wound showed different size ball to that used in his own pistol, and about the same size of the pistol fired by Miss Hamilton. Monday Carpenter and Dillon put Freeman under surveillance, but did not arrest because waiting for affidavit to be made, and on Monday night Freeman made his escape. His friends claim that he was engaged in a game of craps at the hour of the attempted burglary and therefore could not be the one shot by Miss Hamilton. To say the least, circumstances now point pretty strongly against him. Miss Hamilton only saw one hand of the man and shot at that, but if she hit him at all from the position he was standing on the ground, she was bound to hit him in the upper part of his body and Freeman was wounded in the shoulder.

Miss Hamilton proved herself a genuine heroine, and if more of our ladies were schooled to such methods of self-protection in such emergencies there would be fewer burglaries.

J. O. BARNES' Residence Destroyed by Fire.

The residence of Mr. J. O. Barnes, near Hickman, was destroyed by fire about 11 o'clock, Friday night last. The house was a total loss, and all the furniture and household goods, except one bed room set and some minor articles in one room. The origin of the fire is not known, unless it is some unknown way caught from a fire that had been in one of the rooms for heating purposes that day, but the fire had not been replenished since 12 o'clock in the day. When Mr. Barnes retired there were only a few coals to be seen. None the less, the fire must have occurred from heat. There was an insurance of $500 on the house and $200 on the furniture, etc., which will still leave Mr. Barnes a heavy loser. The sympathy of the community is deeply with himself and family, and some signed their telephonic by liberal subscriptions.

No members of the family were at home except Mr. Barnes, and hence so little was saved. He even lost the clothing he wore and the money in his pocket, $11.35, all he had on earth.

Dr. Hall's Assault.

Bill Robinson, a negro preacher, of Union City, was arrested Tuesday night by the one who beat up and robbed Dr. Hall. He lived near Hall's residence. A bloody attack was found in his house, which he says was caused by his nose bleeding. Citizens are confident he is the guilty one. There was apprehension that a mob would deal with him, but calmer counsel prevailed.

The Man Who Advertises.

John Wanner is a good man to take for example. He started in a small way with a small store, and he is today one of the wealthiest men in the county, and he has always been an up right, honest man. In what lay the secret of his success? Simply in this: he knew what the people wanted, he knew how to buy it and he knew how to advertise. Many a man as we all know has made a fortune by judicious advertising. Take two men starting in business at the same time. One uses all the money he makes in living well and sometimes extravagantly. The other invests all the surplus cash he can lay his hands on in advertising here, there, everywhere that he thinks will attract attention. What is the result? The man who advertises has crowded his competitors to see the location of the advertised goods, and as the public began to turn in they will continue from one force of habit. The first shopkeeper will in the meantime be sitting on a thought of and unearned for, sighs at the crowds which daily throng the counters of his competitor and bitterly bewailing the bad luck which has followed his own venture into trade. Yet he has no one to blame but himself.

Property Qualification.

The Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee has prepared and sent out a timely bulletin dealing with the suffrage qualifications imposed on Porto Ricans by the Republican Congress and administration. It says: "While number of States, such as Massachusetts, North Carolina, Connecticut and Louisiana, have prescribed educational qualifications for voters, this Republican measure enacted for Porto Rico is the first attempt in the history of our Republic to prescribe a property qualification since Thomas Jefferson, the great champion of human rights, succeeded in giving to every man, rich and poor alike, the right to exercise his elective franchise as a free American citizen. Think how many thousands of Porto Ricans, under Spanish oppression, have never had an opportunity either to learn to read and write or to possess property. These are not, under Republican rule, permitted to vote, yet under Spanish rule they were never denied the right. What, then, must be the natural conclusion? The truth, through whose influence free trade was denied by Congress to the Porto Ricans, have also dictated a property qualification for the voters of that unfortunate island. Of such is imperialism."

THE SHIRT WAIST MAN

And His Reception in Various Cities.

Oh, you Horrid Thing!
You Shirt waistman!
Get hence!
Don't you know
That you're not planned
For negligence effects?
Can't you realize
That if we allowed you
To leave off your coat
There's no knowing where you'd stop?
For you're just the sort
That needs an iron hand
To keep you in your place
And that in your coat!
No velvet paw.
No angel's touch will ever lead you
But a few swift lines
Like these
May make you see
The error of your ways.
It may be true that you have your Trousers made
With high hips—
Whatever that may mean
And that you sport a belt
In which you seem to have confidence.
But, oh!
Lal-la-lal-lal!
Don't you know
That if you wear a shirt waist
You must have dress shields.
And a pulley belt.
And one of the new straight front ones.
And safety pins.
And lather work effects
Through which there is
A dim shadowy view.
Love school
Cut 'em.
And finished with a fence.
Through which runs baby ribbon.
So-called.
Though not for infants' wear
Exclusively.
And dinky little bows?
It takes all this
To make a shirt waist possible;
But there are lots of things
Shirt waist men
That you're yet to learn.
Take heed,
Of your coat.
And shoes.
And socks.
And other queer things that you wear.
For truly, Shirt waist Man.
You are a sight
To make the angels
Flag their wings.
And ooze with merriment.
Now be nice
Put on your coat.
And try to forget you ever took it off
And wear high hips.
Shirt waist man.
You won't do

Had to go to tell yet.

A German once said to his dog: "My dog you have a snup. You've only a dog and I a man, but I wish I was you. In every way you had to best of it. You want to go to tell yet. You just damn round dree times and lay down. Ven I go mit the bed I haf to look up the place and vind the clock and sundress mitself, and my wife takes up and scolds me, den baby cries and I haf to walk him up and down, den ven I shud get to sleep I have to get up again. Ven you get up you stretch a couple of times and you vaap up. I haf to dress mitself and light the fire and put on the kettle, scarp some mit my wife already, and den maybe I get some breakfast. Ven you den plays around all day and haf plenty of fun. I haf to work hard all day and I haf trouble a plenty. Ven you die you still haf the best of me; you shud lay mit. Ven I die I haf to go to tell yet."

A misplaced column has got a Greenly county, Kan., paper in a jock of trouble. The journal in question recently published an item in which the following sentence occurred: "Two young men from Leola went with their girls to Tribune to attend the teachers' institute, and as soon as they left, the girls got drunk. The column belonged after the 'girls,' and the latter are making it hot for the editor."

BIG CAT RANCH.

Valuable Collection of Rare Species Owned by a Breeder in Big Horn Mountains.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Sept. 11.—Achilles Louis Nichols Davidson has just passed through the city en route from his famous cat ranch in the Big Horn mountains to spend some time with relatives in his old Cheyenne home.

Davidson established his Big Horn cat ranch several years ago, and now has one of the choicest of cat collections.

The ordinary and regulation "tabby," the valuable Angora, with its great size and long silky fur; the pretty "torse" shell variety, the long tailed Maux, the fine from the Isle of Man, the beautiful Cheshire Cat, the Maltese and the native wild cat of the Big Horn Mountains are all included in Mr. Davidson's breeding pens.

The market value of the Angora, the tortoiseshell, and the Cheshire runs from $15 to $50 per cat. Kittens are worth $1 each, and as soon as their eyes are open, while the native wild cat commands an expensive and fancy price.

The cat ranching business on land, valued at $1,000 out, and estimates the market value of his stock at between $5,000 and $7,000.

It is a fact that in doing considerable fancy breeding and especially as respects to the ability to supply the market demand for the rare (part) colored black and cream Angora.

Colton and the Colored Man.

The absolute certainty that the cotton manufacturing industry must sooner or later be equipped in the cotton-producing States is naturally an unpleasant contemplation. It is a condition that palliates some little exasperation, and it might even give sympathy if that emotion were not regarded as repelled by exhibitions of malice. The treatment of negroes in the South is much better, all things considered, than their treatment in the North. Race prejudice is more virulent in any Northern State than in any part of the South. In view of recent outbreaks of mob violence in New York, Ohio, and Illinois, one would imagine that a discreet Northern newspaper would pipe softly on that topic. It is a fact that in doing considerable fancy breeding and especially as respects to the ability to supply the market demand for the rare (part) colored black and cream Angora.

Breast's Punishment.

Epitomized, this is the punishment to be meted out to breast, the murderer of the King of the South. Its cell will be but little larger and very like a coffin.

The prison is absolutely dark. It will never be given a moment's work or exercise.

If he doesn't die of pneumonia air and sea is certain to result.

Above him are the instruments of torture of the Middle Ages, and he will not know what moment he may be subjected to them.

The assassination was a shock to civilization, but how infinitely worse the vengeance here planned by the exalted authorities of a civilized, Christianized nation!

—Strange how we forget our arithmetic unless we keep in practice," remarks an exchange. "Our office was thrown into a state of demoralization last week by a stupid mathematical puzzle that has been going the rounds for the last fifty years. One of our correspondents started the trouble by springing the thing on the bookkeeper. It was the old problem of the two boys who sold thirty apples apiece. One sells his at two for a cent and brings home 15 cents. The other sells his at three for a cent and returns 10 cents, or a quarter of a dollar altogether. Next day their mother sells fifty apples at 4 for a cent and gets only 25 cents. The puzzle is to tell why she didn't realize as much as the boys—another who, when the owner of the old thirty apples apiece, sold his at two for a cent and brought home 15 cents, and the boy who sold his at three for a cent and brought home 10 cents, and the boy who sold his at four for a cent and brought home 7 cents, and the boy who sold his at five for a cent and brought home 6 cents, and the boy who sold his at six for a cent and brought home 5 cents, and the boy who sold his at seven for a cent and brought home 4 cents, and the boy who sold his at eight for a cent and brought home 3
